Peer Connections

Virtual Event

04:00 PM - 05:00 PM EST

Jo Ellen Carson,
membership@alpleaders.org

Peer Connections offers a monthly opportunity to connect virtually with your peers through interactive conversations. Attendees are encouraged to ask open-ended questions and share what's on their minds.

You will have access to others who do what you do, face challenges similar to yours, and are continually innovating to move their programs and their communities forward despite current conditions. You can ask others for input on a big or small issue, compare notes, or share your wins. The people in ALP share generously, so you may apply new ideas that could help your program.

Peer Connections sessions can benefit you right away, and through attending you will also experience one small aspect of ALP's member benefits: being in the room with people who do what you do.
