Building Social Trust Across Difference | Information Session

Virtual Event - Zoom

11:30 AM - 01:00 PM EST

A new partnership between Civity, the Association of Leadership Programs (ALP), and the National Leadership Network (NLN) aims to transform that hope into action by empowering leaders to bridge divides and foster social trust across differences.

This initiative is designed to equip local leaders with the tools and support they need to build connections in communities where division runs deep. These leaders often possess significant influence within their communities, but even the most established leaders face the challenge of uniting people who are separated by distrust and fear of difference. The goal of this partnership is to help these leaders create the relational infrastructure necessary for communities to come together, collaborate, and move forward.

At the heart of this effort is a commitment to fostering a relationship-building mindset. The partnership provides training that encourages leaders to engage with others—especially those they may view as "other"—in meaningful ways. The training is designed to create spaces where everyone feels that they matter, particularly those who have been marginalized or silenced. Join us to learn more!

Leadership Recharged: Advancing Effectiveness through RQ and Strategic Rest

Hilton Fort Worth

815 Main St

Fort Worth, TX 76102

10:00 AM - 02:00 PM EST

Leadership is more than managing tasks. It is about fostering meaningful connections, sustaining energy, and leading with impact. Yet, burnout, disengagement, and leadership fatigue are real threats to effectiveness. What if the key to unlocking sustainable success lies in both relationship intelligence (RQ) and strategic rest?

*In this interactive workshop, Dr. Erin Wilson, co-author of Strategic Rest in Leadership, introduces the NAP Framework (Nurture, Assess, Prioritize) alongside core principles of Relationship Intelligence (RQ) to help leaders elevate their effectiveness. Through hands-on activities, insightful discussions, and real-world applications, attendees will discover how integrating rest and relational awareness into their leadership approach fosters higher engagement, stronger decision-making, and greater team resilience.*

Whether you're looking to enhance team performance, build trust, or sustain high-impact leadership, this session will equip you with practical tools and a personalized recharging strategy to bring back to your organization. Walk away with actionable insights that will help you lead with clarity, connection, and confidence.

WHO IT'S FOR

This course is open to all interested participants, even if you're not attending the full ALP National Conference.

Facilitator: Erin Wilson, Ed. D | Design Ideal Consulting

Dr. Erin Wilson, CEO and principal consultant of Design Ideal Consulting, is passionate about helping individuals and teams unlock their full potential through relationship intelligence and intentional leadership practices. With more than a decade of experience in leadership, learning and development, and community engagement, Erin has designed and facilitated team-building workshops and staff retreats for organizations and universities nationwide and internationally.

Dr. Wilson is a certified Core Strengths, The Five Behaviors, and Everything DiSC partner, equipping her with the tools and expertise to guide teams toward improved communication, collaboration, and performance. She is also the co-founder of the Strategic Rest Summit, a transformative experience designed to help leaders prioritize well-being and sustainable success.

*Inspired by the power of strategic rest, Erin co-authored Strategic Rest in Leadership, a groundbreaking book that empowers leaders to cultivate clarity, resilience, and creativity through intentional rest. Building on the principles in her book, she co-hosts Power NAP, a live show that explores the intersection of rest, creativity, and leadership, offering practical insights and inspiration for viewers.*

As a thought leader in organizational growth, she holds a doctorate in Organizational Leadership and a master's in Human Development and Leadership.

When she's not guiding teams toward excellence, Erin enjoys exploring new destinations with her husband, Frederick, and spending time with her beloved pitty, Harley Quinn. Her work continues to inspire leaders to embrace innovation, connection, and sustainable success.

Connecting Across Difference

Hilton Fort Worth

815 Main St

Fort Worth, TX 76102

10:00 AM - 02:00 PM EST

Are you looking for practical, effective ways to foster a welcoming culture in your organization? Do you want actionable strategies to help your team engage constructively across differences in background, identity, and perspective?

Civity, a national nonprofit organization, has been working with leaders for over ten years to strengthen 'social muscle'—cultivating relationships of respect, empathy, and trust across difference.

Workshop participants walk away with actionable, research-backed strategies that seamlessly integrate into their work. More than just a workshop, this experience provides leaders with tools to build trust and foster meaningful relationships that last far beyond the session.

Our interactive workshop blends plenary discussions, personal reflection, and one-on-one storytelling, helping leaders practice intentional relational engagement—connecting both head and heart to build authentic common ground.

WHO IT'S FOR

This course is open to all interested participants, even if you're not attending the entire ALP National Conference.

Facilitators: Malka Ranjana Kopell & Lucy Lantis, Civity

Malka Ranjana Kopell, a graduate of Leadership San Francisco, is Co-Founder and CEO of Civity. She has more than 30 years' experience facilitating public policy conflict resolution and community engagement processes. Malka also served as a program officer for the William and Flora Hewlett Foundation, was the founding managing director of the Center on Philanthropy and Civil Society at Stanford University, and is a senior associate with the Program on Consensus and Collaboration at California State University, Sacramento. She holds a Master of Public Policy from Harvard University and a B.A. from Stanford University.

Lucy Lantis is an entrepreneur, a Fulbright scholar, and an organizational facilitator. For over a decade, she worked in the world of international higher education. Today, she helps organizations create a culture of belonging through her work with Civity and beyond. She holds a Masters Degree in Conflict Resolution from Dominican University and a B.A. from Creighton University.

Legends of the Stockyards Walking Food Tour

Meeting Point TBD - Fort Worth Stockyards

11:00 AM - 01:00 PM EST

Explore the iconic Fort Worth Stockyards through the lens of multicultural cowboy history. The Fort Worth Stockyards are synonymous with cowboy culture, but the reality of the American West was far more diverse than Hollywood ever depicted.

On this engaging two-hour walking tour, we'll explore the multicultural legacy of the Stockyards, uncovering the untold stories of Black cowboys, Mexican vaqueros, Native American traders, and the many immigrant communities that helped shape Texas ranching, cattle drives, and Western expansion.

Beyond history, this tour will also highlight the foodways of the Old West. What did cowboys actually eat on the trail? How did ranching traditions influence Texas barbecue? What foods did different cultural groups introduce that are still staples today?

You'll sample hearty, history-rich foods as we stop at local Stockyards eateries, enjoying tastes inspired by the past while learning about the deep connections between Fort Worth's cowboy culture and its culinary traditions.

Duration: Two hours

Cost: $60

Departure Time: 11:00 AM CT

Leadership Connections | The Power of Everyday Equity

Virtual Event - Zoom

01:00 PM - 02:30 PM EST

Psychology suggests that the head, the heart and the hands form what is known as the leadership trifecta. Through the lens of her Everyday Equity principles, Dr. Matisa Wilbon will empower attendees to utilize the leadership trifecta to establish a more equitable culture in any organization.

Everyday Equity suggests that when we practice equity incrementally every day, we see sustained change from the top down. Throughout this session, Dr. Wilbon teaches leaders how to utilize the leadership trifecta to become more inclusive leaders on all three levels:

Educating themselves to understand different equity perspectives, experiences, and challenges (the head)

Highlighting inclusive practices by which leaders can cultivate a culture of inclusion (the heart)

Inspiring participants to become equity advocates who champion fairness and equitable practices from their leadership position (the hands)

About the Speaker: Dr. Matisa Wilbon is a TEDx and keynote speaker who uses her 18 years as a sociologist and 10 years as an equity and impact specialist to help institutions understand the power of making spaces more equitable. Dr. Wilbon earned her B.A. in Anthropology/Sociology from Centre College in Kentucky. She received her Master's and Ph.D. degrees in Sociology from The Ohio State University in Columbus, OH. Dr. Wilbon is the CEO of Wilbon Enterprises (WE), a consulting firm specializing in grant writing, Equity and Impact. Through her disruptive leadership model, strategic planning, training and evaluation, she helps organizations move from intention to action. Dr. Wilbon is a sought-after empowerment speaker, as well. She travels extensively, speaking to corporations, non-profits, college campuses, and leadership groups across the country. Her most recent TEDx talk entitled, Good Grief has garnered thousands of views. It highlights the importance of finding gratitude as well as the good in grief. Her second TEDx talk, "The Power of Every Day Equity" was published in the Fall of 2024.

2025 ALP National Conference

Detailed Schedule on Conference Webpage

We are thrilled to announce that the 2025 Association of Leadership Programs National Conference will be held in Fort Worth, Texas! Known as the city of "Cowboys and Culture," Fort Worth perfectly blends the spirit of the Old West with a thriving modern arts and cultural scene, making it an ideal setting for our annual gathering. From the iconic Stockyards National Historic District, where you can experience the legacy of cowboys and rodeos, to the world-class museums in the Cultural District showcasing art, history, and science, Fort Worth offers something for everyone.

This dynamic city, with its unique mix of Western heritage and contemporary flair, will provide an inspiring and unforgettable backdrop for our conference. Mark your calendars and get ready to immerse yourself in the rich experiences that Fort Worth has to offer, from its vibrant downtown, diverse culinary scene, and warm Texan hospitality.
